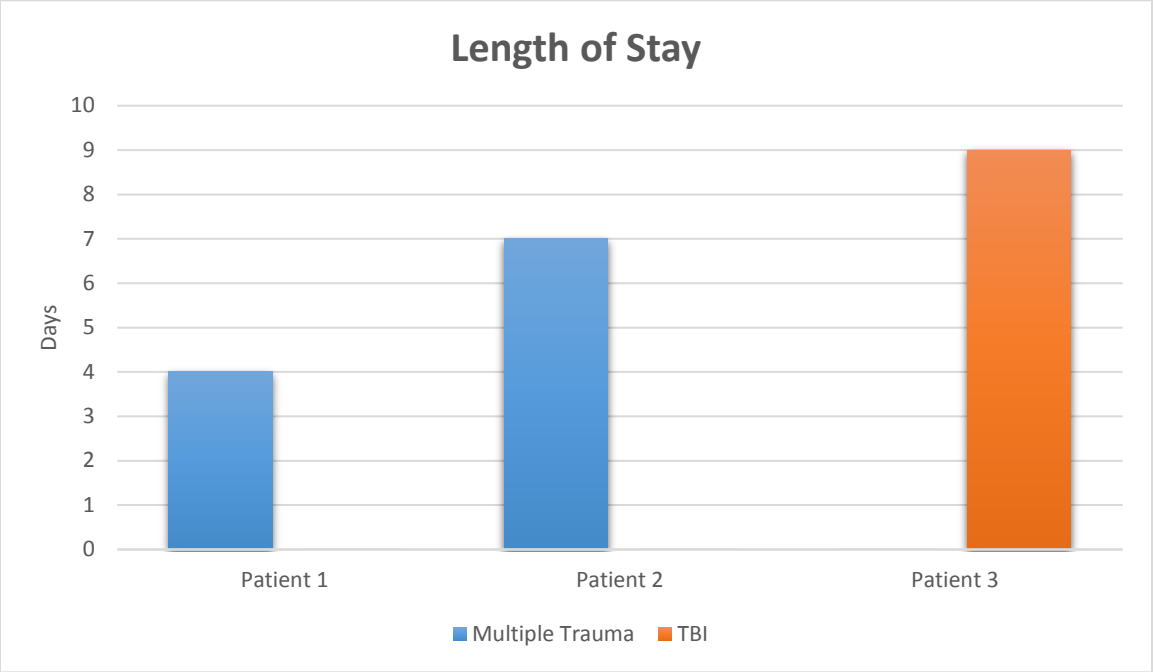
2019 Adolescent Cases


In 2019, Knapp Rehab cared for 3 adolescent patients; the average age of the admitted patients was 14 years old. One patient was admitted with a traumatic brain injury and two patients were admitted with a diagnosis of multiple trauma. All three patients were discharged home from the facility. The average length of stay for adolescent patients on Knapp was 6.6 days.